

Vyners School

Striving for Excellence

Healthy Relationships

Year 8

Vyners School

Striving for Excellence

Session 1: Respect and Tolerance

British Values:

Democracy

Individual Liberty

Rule of Law

Mutual Respect and Tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs

Healthy Relationships

PSHE

Keywords:

Respect: having due regard for (someone's feelings, wishes or rights)

Discrimination: The unjust treatment of people because of the differences or perceived differences.

Vyners School

Striving for Excellence

Get thinking:

What does the word 'respect' mean?
How can I show respect, and how is respect shown?

Healthy Relationships

PSHE

The Equality Act (2010)

Task: In The Equality Act (2010), there are nine protected characteristics? Can you name them? Work with the person sitting next to you, the first one has been done for you (as well as the first letter for each one!)

1.Age

2.S

3.S

4.G R

5.R

6.R

7.R

8.P

9.M

The Equality Act

Task: In The Equality Act (2010), there are nine protected characteristics? Can you name them? Work with the person sitting next to you, the first one has been done for you (as well as the first letter for each one!)

1.Age

2.Sex

3.Sexual orientation

4.Gender Reassignment

5.Race

6.Religion or belief

7.Pregnancy

8.Disability

9.Marriage or Civil Partnership

Respect, Tolerance and Protected Characteristics

What is the link between The Equality Act (2010) and its protected characteristics, and respect?

Think about:

Why we have protected characteristics

The definition of respect

The link between stereotyping and protected characteristics

What is the link between The Equality Act (2010) and its protected characteristics, and respect?

The protected characteristics are in the Equalities Act (2010) and give protection to people in these groups from discrimination which is usually a result of stereotyping. This means that people from the protected characteristics are shown respect because everyone must be thoughtful and considerate when dealing with anyone, regardless of who they are.

Reflection

How might we show respect and tolerance at school? Come up with at least five strategies.

